

The Challenge 2010 – Module 5– Day 3

2010TCMD5D3a: Intro

Running Time: 1 min

Hey, gang! Welcome back. I'm really excited about this because I have a pet peeve. I'll tell you what cheeses me off -- people who go into blogs and forums and all they want to do is pitch what they want to do. They want to talk about what they want to do. It drives me bananas. It's stupid. It doesn't work. It's useless. So today, we're going to teach you the right way, the ethical way, the ecological way to do blog and forum commenting.

How you can help people and still get the benefits of forum and blog commenting, but doing it in a smart way. Please let's do it in a smart way because you just look like a tool when you don't do it the right way.

So, let's head over to those videos and get cracking on it.

Actions

- Either login to existing forums you already visit or find new forums relating to your market and register yourself
- Find a post that you find informative or of value
- Comment on the post by simply saying thank you or something similar
- Repeat this action on a few forums

Handy Tip - The Tapatalk forum reader application is not just for the iPhone. There are also versions for various Android, Blackberry and Nokia smartphones. Visit the Tapatalk site to see if your smartphone is supported.
